Your lying here wrapped up in my arms

And you're warm & sound asleep

Wondering what you're dreaming of

Could it be knights & dragons?

Little fire trucks & wagons

And then I wonder; what will you be?

Your hands be holding scholarships

Or baseball bats and hockey sticks

And suddenly you wake up look at me and smile

I know just what I want you to be

I want you to always be the little boy in my arms

So that I can keep you from the cold and harm

So go on dreaming of your knights & dragons

Little fire trucks and wagons

And Daddy would dream along.....

Daddy would dream along.....

Daddy would dream along
